Credit management has always been one of the principal sources of income for commercial banks. Therefore, strategic credit management is vital to cash flow as it helps in minimizing the likelihood of bad debts. The present text, supported with flow diagrams, data and bank formats, wherever necessary, explains the legal requirements for disbursements and controlling of different types of credit. It also guides readers on step-by-step procedures of bank credit to enable them to form a clear understanding. Besides dealing with the theory and conceptual terms, the book incorporates the latest developments in the field of bank credit. It imparts knowledge of appraisal system of credit applications/proposals and their post-sanction monitoring, credit policy, types of loans and advance facilities granted by banks in India, and analysis of borrowers with particular reference to their legal capacity. It helps in developing skills for identifying, measuring and mitigating risks associated with lending. The book gives various regulatory guidelines pertaining to real estate financing and includes separate chapters devoted to agriculture finance, lending to small-, medium- and large-scale industry, and import and export financing. The book is aimed at postgraduate students of management and commerce. The text will also be of great value to practising credit managers, finance managers and accountants.

In view of the extensive changes in the provisions of Companies Act and accounting with notification of Indian Accounting Standards, there is a complete evolemment in auditor ' s role. This provides guidance on various aspects of financial statements which are audited and on the reporting thereof like consolidation, reporting on internal controls, frauds etc. The book would contain a brief overview of certain key topics / sections which are more frequently required to be dealt with by auditors followed by a checklist which would not only serve as a guidance for the main provisions but would also provide documentary evidence of having performed all the necessary procedures to support their opinion on the financial statements. This books provides relevant provisions of the Act and the various Rules which are relevant for audit This book also provides the accounting treatment and disclosures which arises as a result of adoption of Indian Accounting Standards (Ind-AS) which are the IFRS Converged Standards for certain entities. The applicability and road map for convergence to Ind-As is also discussed briefly.
