I was sold to werewolves. They said I'm the Lost Princess of Howling Sky. I said I'm just Sorissa. They said I'm to be claimed by a lecherous prince and that I'll end some timeless war between werewolves, vampires, and humans. I made other plans. Then four powerful werewolves from a rival kingdom came out of nowhere, and I was stolen again. They call themselves Phantom Fangs. Now, they're taking me to their kingdom to keep me "safe." They probably intend for some other prince to claim me instead. But I'm going to change their minds. They're different from the other werewolves. They're kind, they listen to me, and they make my blood run hot. Can I trust them? Claim the princess, rule the world.

An unclaimed female wolf shifter is a rarity, kind of like a unicorn. Highly-sought after, even fought for. But if Maia has her way, she'll stay unclaimed. Maybe it's a human way of thinking, but she should get to decide who to be with. It isn't asking for the world. On the run from her old pack due to a slight misunderstanding with her intended mate--meaning a claw to his throat--Maia stumbles upon a quaint town in the middle of nowhere. What she does not expect is the trifecta of misfit wolves who've made the town their home. Alarick, the understanding, calm and collected alpha. Farkas, the sarcastic and witty beta. Grimm, the tall, dark and handsome loner. All ridiculously sexy, and they instantly make her question her beliefs. Maybe being claimed wouldn't be such a bad thing...Her Pack is a steamy, reverse harem standalone.

He's an arrogant, reclusive artist, and a complete and utter prick. Why can't I get him out of my head? Ryan Raynard is driving me insane.
