Here's a fresh new Little Golden Book edition of the classic children's singalong song, brought to life by a popular illustrator!

An illustrated version of the traditional song describing the inhabitants of Old Macdonald's farm, including some holes, permitting a portion of the next illustration to be seen. On board pages.

Shares children's songs, including "I'm a little teapot," "Do your ears hang low?," and "Skip to my Lou."

Presents an illustrated version of the traditional song describing the inhabitants of Old MacDonald's farm.

Celebrated creator Gris Grimly, widely known for his gothic style illustrations, turns over a new creative leaf in his glorious interpretation of this beloved preschool anthem. Inspired by his son's love for Old MacDonald and his own family's farming history, and with stunning, sweeping watercolor illustrations, and a surprise twist ending that kids will relish, Gris brings this beloved song to glorious new life. Young children will love reading and singing along as they join our nimble footed Farmer on his morning jaunt across the farmyard and he greets each of his farm animals and beckons them to join his parade. Little ones will delight when the parade culminates in an unexpected e twist ending as Farmer opens the big red barn doors...and GASP...there's a BEAR hidden inside! With a moving artists' note from Gris explaining the history of this song, and his personal connection to it, this delightful retelling has all the makings of a classic.

Row, row, row your boat . . . in Nebraska! The sights and scenery of Nebraska spring to life in this adorable twist on the favorite children's song. Each die-cut page of the layered board book reveals an imaginary boat sailing past Pioneer Village, Chimney Rock, the Old Market, Scotts Bluff National Monument, and more! A delightful children's introduction to the iconic places of Nebraska. And when you're done with your journey? Row, row, row your boat back around the bend. If you love Nebraska, sing the song again!
