The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination by Loraine Boettner

Although most famous for his critique of Catholicism in his book Roman Catholicism, most of Boettner's work concerns topics within Reformed theology. In six sections, his book elaborates upon and defends the "five points" of Calvinism, placing particular stress on the doctrine of predestination. The book's first two sections introduce and define Calvinism's basic doctrines, while the third through fifth sections explain and argue for the validity of predestination as a Christian doctrine.

One of the 20th-century's most reasoned explanations of the sovereignty of God and the Reformed interpretation of salvation. "Whoever really wants to know what Calvinism teaches cannot do better than to read this book from cover to cover".--United Presbyterian magazine.

First published in 1941, this is the Fifth Edition of Loraine Boettner's 1932 publication The Reformed Doctrine of Predestination and is widely considered to be one of the 20th-century's most reasoned explanations of the sovereignty of God and the Reformed interpretation of salvation. "THE purpose of this book is not to set forth a new system of theological thought, but to give a restatement to that great system which is known as the Reformed Faith or Calvinism, and to show that this is beyond all doubt the teaching of the Bible and of reason."—Loraine Boettner, Introduction "Whoever really wants to know what Calvinism teaches cannot do better than to read this book from cover to cover".—United Presbyterian magazine

In this concise, comprehensive, and hope-filled study of death and immortality, which was first published in 1956, author Loraine Boettner addresses a wide range of existential questions, including what happens at death, prayers for the dead, burial versus cremation, soul sleep, annihilation, purgatory, and eternal life. "...an enriching, wholesome and comforting book."—The Evangelical Christian "It is doubtful if any monograph on this subject has ever been published that treats it in a more convincing and challenging manner."—The Southern Presbyterian Journal "...well written, carefully documented, Scripturally sound, logically presented, and most helpful."—Sunday School Board, Southern Baptist Convention

Lorraine Boettner's "Reformed Doctrine of Predestination" offers a clear explanation of the Calvinist position on Predestination. The creeds of many evangelical churches include the doctrine, but few contemporary Christians study it. A cogent presentation of the theology and history of Calvinism and Predestination, Boettner's book treats a topic that deserves to be revisited.
