Cassandra Barnett discusses artists Terri Te Tau and Bridget Reweti and how personhood and hau (life breath) traverse art-taonga. Artist Natalie Robertson addresses kōrero (talk) with ancestors through photography. Janine Randerson and sound artist Rachel Shearer consider the sun as animate with mauri (life force), while Anna Gibb explores life in the algorithm. Rebecca Schneider and Amelia Jones discuss animacy in queered and raced formations. Stephen Zepke explores Deleuze and Guattari's animist hylozoism and Amelia Barikin examines a mineral ontology of art. This book will appeal to readers interested in indigenous and non-indigenous entanglements and those who seek different

A cheerful, friendly man named Max who loves to walk on the beach and enjoy the outdoors in his beautiful hometown of Naples, Florida, visits the local shelter to adopt a dog. The dog, a loveable spaniel named Charlie, likes to do all of the outdoor activities that Max likes to do. Charlie also likes to listen to Max sing, which he does nearly all of the time. Max makes up songs about all sorts of things, including exercise, rules, and his friendship with Charlie. When Max begins teaching singing lessons and is away from home, Charlie is left alone in front of the television with an overflowing bowl of treats. Soon the neighbors notice that Charlie is walking slower and becoming chubby, which leads to a helpful visit to the vet. Both Charlie and Max begin a routine of exercise and healthy eating. Things are going well with the new plan until Max makes a discovery under the sofa cushions. Fortunately problems are resolved for the two best friends as they work toward fitness and good health and discover that carrots are their favorite healthy treat. This delightful children's story of friendship has an important message about health, nutrition and caring for children and pets.
